Council Members Report- Continued:

Council Members Todd Sweazy, Tina Long, and Scott Stevenson had no comments.

Public Comments:

Leslie Snow brought up the number of Water Co. employees and contract labor. She said this is nothing personal against Ricky, but continued with accusations.

Leslie asked Mayor Dudgeon to post the agenda.

Mayor Dudgeon said as far as Ricky Jewell goes, he is not only helping with day-to-day operations. Ricky is training Lane and Derrick. As far as him leaning up against the truck; Ricky drove the truck because Derrick was out sick and the other two (2) guys were driving their city vehicles.

Angie Keeling wanted to acknowledge Derrick Hagan, John Hammond, Ken Lemoine, Laura Barnett, and Chief Whitworth for the work they are doing.

Angie went on to say that she has not had any issues with her trash, but noticed on her water bill that it states bulk pick-up was the first Wednesday of the month. She asked if, people needed to contact Waste Management prior to setting the items out. Mayor Dudgeon said yes.

Donna Johnson asked the status of bathrooms at the park going to be opened to the public. Mayor Dudgeon said there has been a port-a-potty put up at the park for the public to use. Mayor Dudgeon went on to say we are in the process of remodeling the bathrooms so they are still closed. No decision has been made on to re-open or keep them closed once the renovations are complete.
